PROCEEDINGS

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

OF NORTH CAROLINA

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION

Asheville, N. C., March 26, 1947.

On Tuesday evening, March 11, at the sound of the gavel, Mrs. Foy J. Farmer, President, called to order the fifty-sixth annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina.

The theme of the Convention was "To Bear the Message Glorious." Decorations were in green and white, pine, fir, and hemlock, lilies and snapdragons. The inscription, "Go Ye Make Disciples of All Nations," stood in large white letters back of the pulpit. The meeting opened with the missionary hymn, "O Zion, Haste." The invocation was led by Mrs. George Pennell, Asheville.

Mrs. W. D. Briggs, Raleigh, moved that the calling of the roll be dispensed with, that those whose registration cards had been deposited with the Secretary be recognized as constituting the organization, and that the Secretary be empowered to add to this list from cards that might subsequently be deposited. The motion was seconded and adopted.

Motion was made by Mrs. Thos. W. Frye, New Bern, that the program as arranged, with whatever changes might become necessary, be adopted as the order of business. This motion was seconded and passed.

Most cordial words of greeting and welcome were spoken by Mrs. E. Z. Stines, Asheville.

The program of the Tuesday evening meeting featured the young people's organizations and special recognition was given to the Y.W.A.'s, who celebrate this year their Ruby Anniversary.

Miss Ruth Provence, Executive Secretary, presided over the Young People's Session.

The G.A. hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," was sung, followed by the choral reading of Scripture by members of the Mars Hill Ann Hasseltine Y.W.A.

A beautiful and most effective dramatization by Y.W.A.'s of Asheville presented very realistically "Today's Call to Christian Youth." The principal characters were Christian Youth and Burdened Earth, with her children—the Hungry, the Cold, the Sick, the Homeless, the Unwanted.

This was followed by a challenging address by Rev. B. W. Jackson, Royal Ambassador Secretary, entitled "Men Answering the Call."

A youth chorus furnished the music for the evening, and two of these young people, Misses Ruth Vaughn and Freddie Wilson, sang as a duet "How Long Must We Wait?"

"To Bear the Message Glorious" was emphasized by three personal testimonies—"I Offer My Child," Mrs. R. K. Benfield; "I Offer My Leadership," Mrs. Ben Ussery; "I Offer My Life," Miss Mary Copeland.

There was a moment of silent prayer, and the hymn "More Love to Thee" was sung.

The address of the evening was brought by Dr. M. T. Rankin, Executive Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, on the subject, "Thy Mission High Fulfilling." Dr. Rankin read Luke 4:18-19 as a basis of his address, and challenged us, as Christians, with our responsibility for the world today. He urged not only that we give of our means, but that we develop our capacity for compassion, and lose ourselves in service, in order to fulfill our high mission.

Our closing meditation was in the form of a tableau—W.M.S. and a representative of each organization of the young people, grouped around a large globe. The reader for the tableau was Mrs. Earl C. James, Elkin. The soloist, Miss Mary Nell Hardin, Morganton, sang beautifully, "Hark! the Voice of Jesus Calling," and we went to our homes with the message ringing in our hearts.

WEDNESDAY—MORNING SESSION

At 9:15 on Wednesday morning the meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Foy J. Farmer. The hymn,

"The Morning Light Is Breaking," was sung, with Mrs. W. W. Parker, Henderson, at the organ.

The morning worship period was led by Mrs. David F. Boyd, Charlotte, who read passages from the Psalms and the New Testament. Her subject was "The Joy of Work."

Miss Vivian Nowell, Nigeria, Africa, brought greetings from the African W.M.U. and expressed appreciation for gifts to the W.M.U. there. She spoke of her work and of special needs to advance the work in Africa today.

At this point Mrs. Farmer recognized the missionaries and visitors present with us, including Mrs. Chas. M. Griffin and Miss Vonnie E. Lance, president and executive secretary of the South Carolina W.M.U.

Three committees were appointed by the president:

1. The Committee on Appreciation: Mrs. Ben Stephenson, Chairman; Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle, Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Mrs. Earl C. James, Mrs. R. W. Mason.

2. The Committee on Time and Place: Mrs. C. W. Mosley, Chairman; Mrs. E. P. Fleming, Mrs. Charlie Allison, Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Mrs. Bessie Hilliard.

3. The Committee on Resolutions: Mrs. David Bobbitt, Chairman; Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, Mrs. E. B. Beasley.

The members of the Nominating Committee elected by each Division were announced: Asheville Division, Mrs. E. R. Elmore, Mars Hill; Bryson City, Mrs. Charlie Allison, Sylva; Charlotte, Mrs. L. R. Crooks, Concord; Elizabeth City, Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr., Gatesville; Greensboro, Miss Ora Motsinger, Winston-Salem; Hickory, Mrs. Jeff Burns, Valdese; Raleigh, Mrs. F. O. Mixon, Raleigh; Rocky Mount, Mrs. E. B. Beasley, Fountain; Wilkesboro, Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Granite Falls; Wilmington, Mrs. L. H. Reynolds, Leland. Three members at large were nominated from the floor and elected: Western, Mrs. R. K. Redwine; Central, Mrs. W. D. Briggs; Eastern, Miss Una White.

Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr., of the Elizabeth City Division, was named as temporary chairman to call the committee together for organization.

Announcement was made to the Convention of the death of Dr. M. N. McCall, missionary to Cuba, and it was voted to ask the Secretary to wire an expression of sympathy to Mrs. McCall.

Telegrams were read from Mrs. Mary Currin Robertson and Mrs. Kathryn Abee Greene, and the Secretary was instructed to reply to these.

Under the caption, "Bearing the Message Glorious," several reports were made. The financial report given by the Treasurer, Miss Ora Alford, showed larger offerings than we have ever made before. (See printed report of Treasurer.) In gratitude for God's goodness, the audience sang "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow."

Motion was made and approved that the printed report of the Treasurer be adopted.

The Executive Secretary, Miss Provence, called to the platform Divisional Superintendents and representatives, and made a report of work accomplished by the Divisions, and of attainments in new organizations, in Mission Study, Stewardship, Community Missions, and Missionary Education of Youth. She recognized the representatives of 13 A-1 Full Graded W.M.U.'s and called attention to the six A-1 Associations. Associational Superintendents, W.M.S. Presidents, and divisional delegations were recognized. (See report of Executive Secretary, page 27.)

Mrs. John Wacaster, Field Representative, gave a report of her travels and activities.

With Mrs. R. K. Redwine taking the Chair, Mrs. Farmer made the President's address, having as her subject "Commissioned and Committed." (See page 23.)

A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Farmer, as Mrs. Redwine suggested, "For the message and the messenger."

Rev. Ben Bushyhead brought greetings from the Cherokee Indians. A group of Cherokee women, under the leadership of Mrs. J. J. Johnson, sang gospel hymns in the Cherokee language. Mr. Bushyhead made a brief statement about their work and needs, and expressed their gratitude to W.M.U. for the financial aid we have given them.

Dr. Clarence Jordan, Koinonia Farm, Americus, Georgia, discussed the opportunities at our door to further advance the Kingdom of God, by establishing better race relations and endeavoring to understand more fully people of other races than our own.

The large Mars Hill College Glee Club sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," and the morning session closed with silent prayer.

WEDNESDAY—AFTERNOON SESSION

The Wednesday afternoon session was called to order at two o'clock by the President.

The Memorial Service, conducted by Mrs. Roy Clifford, Lexington, began with the singing of the hymn, "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand." Mrs. Clifford expressed appreciation for our heritage, and for the lives of friends and loved ones no longer with us. "Rock of Ages" was quietly played on the organ as the audience bowed their heads in gratitude for the memory of departed friends.

Miss Marjorie Spence, missionary to Chile, spoke of "The Harvest in Chile," and of open doors in that country today.

The hymn, "Ye Christian Heralds, Go Proclaim," was sung by the congregation.

Motion was made and passed that the reading of the minutes be dispensed with, and the minutes of the Convention be referred to the Executive Committee.

Telegrams, bearing greetings and best wishes, were read from the W.M.U. in session in Georgia, and the W.M.U. of Alabama in session. The Secretary was asked to wire reply.

Presentation of the Plan of Work for 1947 as recommended by the Executive Council, was made by the Executive Secretary and the State Chairmen. Miss Provence called attention to the changes occurring in the Plan of Work. (See page 27.)

Plans for mission study were given by Mrs. Gordon Maddrey, State Mission Study Chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. H. A. Knight, High Point, and Mrs. A. J. Smith, Goldsboro. Mrs. Maddrey gave honorable mention to the two associational mission study chairmen who had met all requirements for their Associations: Mrs. D. R. Jackson, of the Raleigh, and Mrs. R. Jennings White of the West Chowan Association.

Mrs. M. A. Huggins gave the report on Stewardship. Suggestions for carrying out stewardship plans were made available. (Copies are on file in the office.) Mrs. Huggins was assisted by Mrs. E. S. Elliott, Cherryville, who has worked with marked success in the Hickory Division.

Allocations for the Heck Memorial Offering were presented by Miss Provence: W.M.U. Training School, $3,000.00; Shaw University, $1,000.00; Gifts to New Orleans and Southwestern Seminaries, $5,200.00; Development of Fruitland, $5,000.00; American Bible Society, $800.00. Total, $15,000.00.

A message from Miss Hilda Mayo, recently elected Young People's Secretary, was read by the Executive Secretary.

Turning our thoughts to our Training School, Mrs. R. K. Redwine, Training School Trustee, presented Dr. Carrie U. Littlejohn, principal of the Training School. She brought us a heavy sense of the responsibility that is ours to train our young women for Christian service. In 1908 we had four young women graduates. This year there will be seventy-two.

Following all the presentations, Miss Provence made a motion that these recommendations be adopted and become our Plan of Work for 1947. The motion received a second and passed unanimously. A prayer of dedication to our task as W.M.U. members and leaders was led by Mrs. J. Clyde Turner. This was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Come, Women, Wide Proclaim."

The closing message of the afternoon was brought by Mrs. Edwin Dozier, missionary to Japan, using as her subject, "The Isles Shall Wait for His Law." This was a most earnest plea for Christian people to endeavor to understand Japan, and to render all the aid possible in her hour of need.

The service was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. R. Morgan, Waynesville.

WEDNESDAY—EVENING SESSION

Dr. Perry Crouch presided at the Wednesday evening session, and the service was opened with singing of the hymn "O Zion, Haste," followed by the Scripture reading and prayer by Mr. John K. Durst. The Scripture chosen for our devotional thought was Romans 12.

Special music was rendered by the well-trained choir of the First Church, Asheville.

Mr. M. A. Huggins, General Secretary of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, gave us glorious tidings of the work in North Carolina, of our gifts for last year, and our plans for future growth and enlargement. He announced the opening of the first summer assembly at Fruitland on June 23.

Following the singing of the hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign," the presiding officer presented Dr. Courts Redford of the Home Mission Board, who gave us a vision of unchurched people in our Southland, of foreign-speaking people, of untrained leadership. We have done much, but there remains yet much to be done.

There was special music by the men's chorus of the First Church.

To represent our foreign fields came Miss Elizabeth Hale, Shanghai, China. She emphasized the needs in that war-torn country, and urged that all that we have and are be laid on the altar of Christian service.

The closing meditation was a tableau—W.M.U., and representatives of the different peoples of the world, grouped around the globe—W.M.U. holding an open Bible in her hand. Miss Hardin sang "Hark! the Voice of Jesus Calling," and Mrs. Earl C. James was the reader.

THURSDAY—MORNING SESSION

The final session of the 1947 W.M.U. Convention was called to order by the President, Mrs. Farmer, at 9:15 Thursday morning, March 13. The service opened with the singing of our hymn for the year, "Hark! the Voice of Jesus Calling." Again the worship period was conducted by Mrs. David Boyd, who read our watchword for the year and verses from the Psalms. Her general theme was, "Strength for the Tasks That Are Ours." She quoted reassuring promises and reminded us that our God will give us physical strength for our tasks. "Thy God hath commanded thy strength." "As thy days, so shall thy strength be."

Following the devotional, during a moment of silent prayer, Miss Mary Nell Hardin sang quietly "O Jesus, I Have Promised."

During the business session of the morning, the proposed change in the Constitution was read by the Executive Secretary. Article V, Section 4. "Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be officers of the Woman's Missionary Union, Executive Committee, the Divisional Superintendents and Young People's Leaders, the Associational Superintendents and Young People's Leaders, five delegates from the entertaining society, and not more than three delegates, one of whom may be a member of Young Woman's Auxiliary, from each church in the State having missionary organizations. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Woman's Missionary Union shall be entitled to vote or to serve on committees." Miss Provence made a motion for adoption of these changes, which was seconded by Mrs. Turner and passed unanimously.

The Secretary read the motion which had been proposed earlier to the Executive Board by Mrs. R. N. Simms, Sr., to link the names of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck and Mrs. W. N. Jones in a Heck-Jones Memorial Day and Offering in June of each year: "Because of the fact that these two great women were not only pioneers, but co-workers and devoted friends, who depended greatly on each other, it seems most fitting that their names should be linked in a memorial that would cause them to be known and admired through all time by each succeeding generation of Baptist women and young people.

"Therefore, after much consideration of a number of things that might be done to accomplish this, and to prevent the necessity of establishing another memorial, I move that in addition to the 'Life of Mrs. Jones,' to be written, we establish a joint Heck-Jones Memorial Day and Offering in June, when by appropriate programs on their lives our young people and women will ever know who were these founders of North Carolina W.M.U., and do them honor."

From the floor, motion was made by Mrs. Gordon Maddrey that this recommendation be accepted. It was seconded and adopted.

The Time and Place Committee submitted their report. (See page 55.)

Motion was made to accept this report, seconded, and passed with enthusiasm.

After the report of Appreciation Committee (see page 54), the Asheville chairmen of all committees who had served from the hostess churches were called to the platform. Mrs. George Pennell, general chairman of committees, was recognized by Mrs. Farmer, who spoke gracious words of appreciation for all the efficient work of committees and our cordial welcome and entertainment. Mrs. Pennell, in turn, introduced each of the local chairmen, mentioning the duties for which she had been responsible.

With Mrs. W. D. Briggs of Raleigh taking the chair, the full report of the Nominating Committee was read by Mrs. Edgar T. Howell of Greensboro, Chairman. (See page 55.)

Motion was made, seconded and passed, that this report be adopted in full.

The Nominating Committee then brought a recommendation that the term of office of non-salaried state officers and departmental chairmen be limited to a period of five years of continuous service. Motion was made and seconded that this recommendation be adopted. The motion carried.

The Registration Committee reported 597 delegates, 495 visitors, a total registration of 1,092.

Mr. Claude F. Gaddy, Executive Secretary of the North Carolina Education Commission, was recognized, and spoke briefly on Christian Education and our Baptist Colleges and Institutions, emphasizing trained leadership.

Mrs. Elton Johnson, Victoria, Brazil, was introduced to the audience by Miss Ruth Provence, who spoke on "Making Disciples in the Land of the Southern Cross." She recounted the growth of our work in Brazil, the vast area there "ripe unto harvest," and the great need for reinforcements, for more laborers who will go to this challenging field.

The hymn, "O God, We Pray for All Mankind," was sung.

To this closing service came Chaplain Miller Jackson, Sumter, S. C., having returned the week before from his service in Aomori, Japan. He gave first-hand information as to the dire needs of the Japanese, and urged that we send packages. He assured us that seed-planting there by Christian missionaries is bearing fruit, and challenged Christians to continue their loyal support for this field which we must re-enter and claim for Christ.

The stirring address of Dr. Carrie U. Littlejohn, of the W.M.U. Training School, was a fitting climax for this excellent Convention of W.M.U. Miss Littlejohn chose as her subject, "To Bear the Message Glorious." She discussed the Message, the Messengers, the Motives for "Bearing the Message," and our Source of Power to carry out the Great Commission that is ours.

The President invited to the platform to lead our prayer Miss Olive Lawton, who asked to bring her mother in her stead.

The closing meditation, with Mrs. Earl C. James as reader and Miss Mary Nell Hardin as soloist, was a tableau featuring W.M.U., and a group of women who represented the five Chief Aims: Prayer, Mission Study, Tithes and Offerings, Community Missions, and Missionary Education of Young People.

To each one of us came the inspirational message, "I Have Created Thee for My Glory." Every one went away from this mountain-top experience in the Land of the Sky pledged to a deeper consecration, "To Bear the Message Glorious."

COMMISSIONED AND COMMITTED

By Mrs. Foy J. Farmer

"America Must Be Christian" is the latest book published by the Home Mission Board. Within the compass of less than one hundred and fifty pages, the author, Dr. Cornell Goerner, gathers together facts that have been presented over the radio, in newspapers, magazines, books, in sermons and lectures, and from these facts draws conclusions that startle and frighten the reader, and that bring a realization of the tremendous responsibility that rests upon us who have been commissioned to go and make disciples of all the nations. May I quote two paragraphs:

"America must be Christian; and she must be so Christian that she will undertake, on a scale not yet attempted, the evangelization of the non-Christian nations of the world. This is America's day of opportunity! She possesses wealth, influence, Christian manpower, and access to the nations of the earth. In a few golden years, a forthright Christian policy in international affairs, plus a sustained campaign of preaching, teaching, and ministering among non-Christian peoples might do much toward winning the world to acceptance of the way of Christ. If the opportunity is wasted, within a generation pagan powers may rise against us, and unrestrained by Christian teachings, use modern weapons of our own invention to destroy us!"

Then, after discussing the contrast between the bold big plans of all Christian denominations in 1920 for raising huge sums of money and enlisting hosts of men and women for mission work with the rather timid backward plans of this post-war period, Dr. Goerner says:

"The needs are perfectly apparent. The alternatives are plainer even than they were in 1920. The Christians of America must 'give of their sons to bear the message glorious, give of their wealth to speed them on their way.' There must be a vast renewal and enlargement of Christian world missions, as those who have the only adequate answer to the world's need give that answer to the world before the world destroys itself and them with it. Once before in 1920 the Christians of this country faced this alternative, realizing the issues in a way. They decided for world evangelization; started nobly; faltered; forgot; turned back to selfishness and isolation—and suffered the consequences in 1942. Will history repeat itself? Will Christians fail again? Will the question, 'Who is to blame?' once more have to be answered penitently, 'After all, the real blame must be with the followers of Jesus Christ' for not evangelizing the world in the day of opportunity? Or will Christians at last obey the clear command of their Master and make disciples of all the nations, thus doing their indispensable part in preventing bloody and catastrophic wars?"

As we think upon these things the grave responsibility that rests upon us in accepting our watchword for this year well nigh overwhelms us. "Go ye—and make disciples of all the nations." Our own nation far from being truly Christian, many who have named His name utterly indifferent, seemingly; the world torn and bleeding and hungry and sinsick; greed and suspicion and selfishness evident in high places and low—and we are to go into all the world to make disciples of all the nations! How can we meet such a challenge?

"Did we in our own strength confide" the task would be impossible—"our striving would be losing." Even as we read again the watchword, we must remember the context, "All power is given unto me," said the Master, and "lo, I am with you." That is the secret. Our mission is divine in its origin. God himself commends us to set about obeying this commission. Dr. Alexander Maclaren writes: "All Christ's commandments are gifts. When He says to you 'Do this!' He pledges himself to give you power to do it. Whatever He enjoins He strengthens for. He binds himself by His commandments, and every word of His lips which says to us 'Thou shalt' contains as its kernel a word of His which says 'I will.' So when He commands He bestows; and we get the power to keep His commandments when in humble faith we make the effort to do His will."

As we undertake to obey the divine commission with which we have been honored, depending on the power our Master has promised, we must remember that Jesus cared always for the physical needs of people. He had compassion on the hungry multitudes, and fed them. Today there are multitudes of hungry people in the world. We have plenty and we must share. Again quoting from Dr. Goerner: "Bitterness and unrest will deepen into festering spots of disaffection all over the world, if the basic needs of these unfortunate peoples are not met by those who are able to help them. War breeds on hunger and need. Hungry men will stop short of nothing to fill their mouths and their children's." Dr. Rankin, speaking in the First Baptist Church in Raleigh soon after his return from China pointed out that we must feed starving people before they will be either ready or able to assimilate the spiritual food which we are commissioned to give them. It is a real joy to know that one of the plans in the making for the sixtieth anniversary of W.M.U.—The Year of Commemoration—is the giving of a special offering of $600,000 for material aid to the needy nations. Plans will be perfected and definite announcement will be made at the W.M.U. annual meeting in St. Louis. This will be an effort by Woman's Missionary Union, not a part of a General Convention plan as was last year's $3,500,000 campaign. Miss Ruth Provence, our beloved and efficient Executive Secretary—we do thank God for her—is on the Anniversary Committee of the Southern Union, and will lead us in this undertaking.

One other danger we must bear in mind—race prejudice and hatred have no place in the hearts of those who are commissioned to make disciples of all nations. "Race prejudice in the United States hamstrings American missionaries elsewhere" is a true statement. Woman's Missionary Union has made some beginnings in helping to find a Christian solution to the race question that affects us most seriously. However, we have taken but a few steps compared with the distance we pray that we may be led.

Those of you who are of my generation will recall that in years past the Great Commission was interpreted always with a foreign mission emphasis. It was startling to read one day that to us in America "the uttermost parts of the earth" means places as far removed as Shanghai, China; but were a Christian Chinese in Shanghai, China, reading this passage of Scripture, "the uttermost parts of the earth" would of necessity include America! Truly "the field is the world." "Go—or send a substitute" was a catch phrase that we have heard frequently. The inevitable question that this evokes is, "Then what of the substitute's own going?" We know that with our physical bodies we cannot go in person to witness in Jerusalem, in Judea, in Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth, but we can find out the place the Lord has for us to go, and there joyfully serve Him.

"If you cannot cross the ocean and the heathen lands explore,
You can find the needy nearer, you can help them at your door."

The grave matter for us to consider is if we have harkened to the voice of Jesus calling, and have answered from our hearts, "Here am I, send me, send me." For those whom He calls to "wear the purple of royal service" on foreign fields, for those whom He calls just as truly to fields white unto harvest right here at home, the opportunities are limitless.

"Gladly take the task He gives you,
Let His work your pleasure be,
Answer quickly when He calleth,
Here am I, send me, send me."

Then, too, we must not forget that while we can go in person just so far as our physical limitations will permit, God has so planned that we can go into all the world through our gifts of substance, through our prayers, and through the young people whom we train for His glory. We are grateful for the record our Treasurer has just brought us—a total of $821,800.17. All who had part in making this possible have gone everywhere—preaching, teaching, feeding, healing. We are grateful for the privilege of prayer, and for the specific assurances granted from time to time that our prayers have availed much. We are grateful for the emphasis that our Woman's Missionary Union places on prayer, and for the aids it provides to help us know how to pray, and to be faithful in prayer.

Last year at our meeting in High Point, Dr. Gillespie paid tribute to the consecrated Sunbeam leader who gave him the first impulse he had toward China. Maude Burke Dozier received her first missionary zeal from her mother who led one of the earliest Sunbeam Bands in our State. And these examples could be multiplied, R.A.'s, G.A.'s, Y.W.A.'s. All present inestimable opportunities for the leaders to project themselves into all the world! In the summer, the Woman's Missionary Union sponsors camps, in which literally thousands of young people are gathered for intensive instruction in Bible, and in Missions. What a glorious opportunity is presented here! The directors, counselors, house mothers, preachers, missionaries who give their time and strength unsparingly in these camps are truly being sent by the Master into all the world. We eagerly anticipate the coming of Miss Hilda Mayo to lead in our organized work for Young People, and we pledge her our prayerful co-operation. We want to thank the General Board for making possible a camp site in Fruitland, and we rejoice that we can have some share in financing this enterprise. We hope the day is not far distant where there will be a camp in the East, too.

As we answer to His voice calling us, "Here am I, send me," let us not forget that He does not promise flowery beds of ease. He does not say to us as we all too often say to those whom we seek for an office, "Oh, take this office, you really will not have anything to do." He said to Ananias concerning Paul, "I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake." But when He calls, and leads, and strengthens, the hardships of the way will be forgotten in the joy of the task. Listen to these words from one of our foreign missionaries, and though under different circumstances, let them become the expression of our own hearts.

"Just one year ago I left my sister's home in Apex, N. C., and turned my face for the fifth time toward China. I was happy to come, yet there was almost fear in my heart too. Well did I know that I was coming back to a China different in many respects from the China I had known. Almost I would have held back saying, 'Lord, let me wait a while,' or 'Isn't thirty years long enough to spend away from the homeland and loved ones? Can't I serve just as well at home?' But His hand beckoned on, and though I turned some longing glances backward, yet I followed His leading. As I stand on the threshold of the New Year, and take a backward look over the year just ended, I can say from my heart with David the Psalmist, 'Bless the Lord, oh my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy name.' How precious He was to me throughout the year! How near and real His presence! How conscious I was of His leadership! Not over smooth ways did He lead every day, nor do I see the way ahead straight and clear and bright. But He has led, and I know He will still lead, and where He leads I am glad to follow."

"Go ye—and make disciples of all the nations."

"Here am I, send me, send me."

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

Thomas Carlyle once said, "God is always placing an unfinished task on the work-bench of the world." Those who serve in the field of missionary education are ever aware of an "unfinished task." "Go ye" sounds with the same imperative urgency today as when spoken by our Lord in the long ago; the world's need of the gospel increases; and Christian hearts must respond to the task which for them becomes a trust.

Year by year as the records of Woman's Missionary Union are summarized, one is increasingly conscious that the task is yet unfinished. The notes of growth and achievement become calls to yet greater service; recognized weaknesses or losses stir to more faithful effort. The opportunities of the future beckon and challenge.

Perhaps it would have been wise for this report of 1946 to have been written by someone else, since your new Executive Secretary has been in your midst for so brief a period of time; yet the study of the past year's work which has been necessary for such a report has been stimulating indeed. There is a deep sense of appreciation for all who have given so faithfully of their leadership and services during these past months and who have made possible the accomplishments of the year.

The year of 1946 was one marked by much shifting of personnel within the state office. Mrs. Foy J. Farmer, who had rendered such loyal, effective service as Acting Executive Secretary, felt led to resign from this responsibility March 1. At the annual meeting in High Point, she returned to the presidency of the Union and has continued to give herself untiringly to its every interest. Mrs. John Wacaster, of Cherryville, became field representative on January 1 and throughout the year contributed immeasurably to the work. Your present Executive Secretary came into her position on September 20, having served previously as W.M.U. young people's secretary of South Carolina. After three years of earnest, enthusiastic leadership, Miss Kathryn Abee tendered her resignation as Young People's Secretary to take effect September 1. In that month she was married to Rev. A. T. Greene, Jr., of South Carolina. During the summer, Rev. B. W. Jackson, who had been successful as special Royal Ambassador worker for two summers, was elected full-time Royal Ambassador Secretary. He assumed this larger responsibility on September 1. October brought the resignation of Miss Lillian Ogburn, one of the efficient office secretaries, and her marriage followed during the latter part of that month. Miss Mabel Baucom, of Raleigh, came in as her successor on November 1.

This shifting of personnel increased throughout the year the responsibility resting upon state chairmen and other members of the Executive Committee and upon divisional and associational officers. The loyalty of these volunteer workers cannot be over-emphasized. They rallied wholeheartedly to the needs of the Union, sharing in the promotion of the work in its every phase. Following the splendid divisional leadership conferences in early January, the associational officers, with the help of divisional workers, conducted most successful associational conferences. This was the first time these had been carried on without the help of state workers, and results proved so gratifying that the same plan will be followed in other years. Members of the Executive Committee, including the splendid State Chairmen, assisted as state representatives in annual associational meetings in April and in answering other calls that came. Gratitude is expressed to all who thus shared in the direction and promotion of the work throughout 1946.

During the summer months, in addition to Mr. Jackson, who served as Royal Ambassador worker, two other helpers were employed: Miss Hilda Mayo, as Girls' Auxiliary field worker, and Miss Stella Austin as general field worker.

The state meeting at High Point, March 12-14, was a never-to-be-forgotten experience. The associational meetings of April were well attended, as were the divisional meetings in October. In the latter, it was a joy to have Miss Kathleen Mallory, Mrs. David F. Boyd and Mrs. Taul White as special guests. November 7-8, the Executive Council met at the First Church, Raleigh, in a three-session conference. One hundred and eleven workers were present, and much was accomplished toward the setting of plans for the new year.

Due to varying circumstances, the usual state-promoted Interracial Institutes were not held in 1946, but associations and local organizations were encouraged in their own projects of helpfulness and good will.

An outstanding feature of the year's work was the enlarged summer camping program. Under Miss Abee's inspiring leadership, plans were projected for divisional camps for Junior G.A.'s and Junior R.A.'s. A total of 429 girls and 220 boys enjoyed these experiences. In addition to the divisional camps, several associations conducted briefer camps. Seven state camps were held for Intermediates: two at Meredith College and two at Mars Hill College for G.A.'s; and one at Campbell College and two at Mars Hill College for R.A.'s. Large numbers of young people were touched through these, and results were encouraging indeed. In June, 285 young women from North Carolina attended Ridgecrest Y.W.A. Camp. 17 young men formed the representation at the Young Men's Mission Conference. Many North Carolina women were present for the first W.M.U. Week at Ridgecrest.

Throughout the year volunteer workers in the churches gave of themselves in devoted leadership of local work. This organizational activity, inspired by associational, divisional and state contacts, is in many ways the foundation of the whole missionary education program. Too much cannot be said in appreciation of those who have applied the plans and suggestions to the local church field. The statistical report of the year, compiled through associational and divisional reports, is in reality the story of the missionary societies and young people's organizations of the local churches.

The fact that totals on number of organizations and number of members vary considerably in this 1946 report, as compared with the report for 1945, is explained by the decision to take these figures, as well as those on organizational activities, from the reports sent to the state office by associational and divisional officers. This seems to form a more uniform basis for accounting of records.

The following figures will be of interest to all:

	W.M.S.	Y.W.A.	G.A.	R.A.	S.B.	Grand Total

Home Missions	933	1,548	2,481
State Missions	883	1,433	2,316
Foreign Missions	966	1,546	2,512

Special attention is called to the exceedingly encouraging reports on mission study, stewardship and community missions given by the respective State Chairmen and to the excellent report of the Treasurer. The latter records the greatest giving yet experienced by the North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union. With significant increases in Co-operative Program gifts and all Season of Prayer Offerings and the Heck Memorial Offering, along with special gifts to World Relief and Rehabilitation in co-operation with the great summer effort of Southern Baptists for this cause, total gifts of the year amounted to $821,800.17, as compared with the 1946 goal of $680,000.00. God's blessings this year should stir every heart to added zeal and devotion in the months ahead.

Special recognition is given to the thirteen A-1 Full Graded W.M.U.'s in the state:

Beulah—Yanceyville.

Cabarrus—Kannapolis, Franklin Heights.

Chowan—Elizabeth City, First.

Gaston—Gastonia, Ranlo.

Liberty—New Friendship.

Roanoke—Bethel.
Farmville.
Oakdale.

Tar River—Harris Chapel.

West Chowan—Ahoskie.

Development in efficiency of associational work is seen in the following records. Six associations attained A-1 rating on the Associational Standard of Excellence:

Atlantic—Mrs. John Lashley, Superintendent.
Chowan—Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr., Superintendent.
Johnston—Mrs. J. E. Wilder, Superintendent.
Mecklenburg—Mrs. V. G. Roberts, Superintendent.
Pilot Mountain—Miss Ora Motsinger, Superintendent.
Raleigh—Mrs. F. Orion Mixon, Superintendent.

Nine associations reached all but one point:

Beulah—Mrs. J. F. Funderburk, Superintendent.
Cabarrus—Mrs. L. R. Crooks, Superintendent.
Carolina—Mrs. M. K. Sinclair, Superintendent.
Gaston—Mrs. M. L. Barnes, Superintendent.

The work of 1947 has been launched and is already well under way. Your Executive Secretary is grateful for the privilege of sharing in the missionary endeavors of this great state. An unfinished task lies on the "work-bench" of each heart and life. God's guidance and power await us. For the sake of the world we must be faithful.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH PROVENCE,
Executive Secretary.

REPORT OF FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

"The near land, the dear land, whatever our fate—
The best land, the blest land, the Old North State."

With her head pillowed upon the majestic Smokies, her feet bathed in the waters of the mighty Atlantic, and, in between, a vast area where the wheels of industry hum and turn, where a church steeple can be seen on almost any hill and street, that's North Carolina—the place where I have had the privilege of working for the past year as your field representative.

As I record the classes and conferences, the meetings and miles, the letters and lessons, I wish I were able to make you see, hear, and feel what your representative does.

When I report 48 mission study classes taught, I wish you could see the faces of some, who for the first time realize that they can be good stewards and that they can do mission work and live at home; and when I say 46 conferences held, that you might hear the eager questions asked, as women seek to know how to carry on their work.

It was my privilege to make 65 talks during the year; attend and speak at five divisional meetings, 22 associational meetings, three divisional leadership conferences and eight associational leadership conferences; bring the closing message at seven meetings and organize six new societies.

I have attended the following meetings—W.M.U. State Convention in High Point, W.M.U. Week at Ridgecrest, the Council Meeting in Raleigh, and four state executive meetings. Also I have helped in one school of missions, one Vacation Bible School and one G.A. camp

(acting as counselor, conference leader and leading morning watch). I have attended one County Young People's Meeting where I gave the missionary message.

During the year I have contacted personally 35 associations, and 516 letters and cards went out carrying information, dates, schedules, plans, etc.

In doing the above I have traveled 12,452 miles, yet I have not been to either Murphy or Manteo.

It has been such a joy to work with the people in the various organizations—up in the mountains, down by the sea, and all in between. I have been richly blessed in trying to help others. And thus I close my report with the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless everyone."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JOHN WACASTER.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY CHAIRMAN

Mission Study emphasis during 1946 has been along the lines of (1) General Missionary Reading for all age groups, (2) the Missionary Round Table for those women who are ready and willing to do extra and more intensive reading of missionary books, (3) the Associational Mission Study Institute and (4) the Mission Study Class, which is fundamental.

A total of 5,153 mission study classes were reported for 1946, with an enrollment of 54,264. These figures are exclusive of classes and enrollments at summer camps. Of these, 5,153 classes reported, 2,621 were W.M.S. classes, and represented a net gain among the women of 721 classes and 5,577 enrolled. Fifty Missionary Round Tables were reported, which was an increase of 30 over 1945; and 16 Associational Institutes, as compared with 6 during the previous year.

Three of the ten divisions reported promptly to both State and Divisional Mission Study Chairman each quarter during the year, and sent in an annual report: Elizabeth City, Greensboro, and Rocky Mount. In addition to the ten associations included in these three divisions, 28 other associations made a similar record: Tar River, Sandy Creek, Mount Zion, Johnston, Beulah, Raleigh, Little River, Blue Ridge, Gaston, Sandy Run, Tuckaseigee, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, King's Mountain, Buncombe, Haywood, French Broad, Yadkin, Caldwell, Alexander, South Yadkin, Stanly, Union, Eastern, Wilmington, Robeson and New South River. Thus a total of 38 of the approximately 65 associations made a perfect reporting record for the year.

During the past year Divisional Chairmen were given special responsibilities and requested to report quarterly and annually to the State Chairman. Six of the Divisional Mission Study Chairmen responded with perfect reporting: Asheville, Elizabeth City, Charlotte, Greensboro, Rocky Mount, and Wilmington.

The Charlotte and Wilmington divisions made the largest increase in number of classes reported and showed greatest improvement in mission study during the year. The Raleigh Division led in the total number of classes reported, and the Roanoke and West Chowan associations tied for the lead in classes reported among associations. The West Chowan Association led in number of Missionary Round Tables organized during the year, and the Elizabeth City and Charlotte divisions tied for the lead in that phase of the mission study program. The Greensboro Division led in number of Associational Mission Study Institutes.

If Southern Baptists are to answer in anything like an adequate way the challenges which come to us in this second century of our organized work, we must know the needs of the world—we must have a vision of the task and our part in it. The mission study program of Woman's Missionary Union gives opportunity for acquiring such knowledge and understanding.

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP CHAIRMAN

It was Voltaire who said, "There is one thing stronger than all the armies of the world and that is an idea whose time has come." One cannot deny that the time has come when Christian Stewardship should possess the lives of Pagan America.

Our report for 1946 gives hope that some phases of stewardship are growing in the minds and hearts of many members of Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina. May God grant that through our prayers, our giving and our living we may lead out to make Christian Stewardship stronger than all the armies of the world.

With gratitude to God we record the following facts concerning our stewardship of money during 1946. With a goal of $387,643.00 for undesignated Co-operative Program gifts, we gave $419,177.73 or 13½ per cent increase over such gifts of 1945.

REPORT OF COMMUNITY MISSIONS CHAIRMAN

We lift our hearts in deepest gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the opportunity of service during the past year. Our lives have been greatly enriched as we have tried to give ourselves to prayer and personal witnessing in order to reach the unsaved and unenlisted in our communities.

We have emphasized individual witnessing this year and have urged that this be reported. We not only wanted to know that a cottage prayer meeting was held but how many women attended the meeting, not only that various activities had been done but also how many women or young people participated. It is up to those of us who are trying to direct the work to know the needs and see that every member is assigned something she can do each month to the end that all needs may be met.

Mrs. Edgar Godbold, our south-wide chairman, says, "A lack of understanding of the work, a prevailing impression that only large societies can do much community missions work, poor planning for the youth organizations, and an unwillingness to go where there is human need is the reason less than one-half of our W.M.U. members are actively engaged in community missions." If we will take to heart the suggestions recommended in the community missions program for this year, we will see these causes done away with in our own state.

Last year we began the idea of organizing Community Missions Councils and Institutes. I am happy to report that seven Councils and three Institutes were conducted.

There has been a decided increase in the interest of religious and spiritual betterment among other races. Many of our women are awakening to the real need for trained Christian leaders for our colored race here among us. Christian fellowship is being shown and progress has been made in definite enterprises of co-operation between Baptist Negro women and Woman's Missionary Union. In helping in this way, we shall be helping to solve one of the world's most difficult problems.

This beloved state of ours offers a rich field for the investment of Christian interest, sympathy and effort. We may see more clearly a vision of a whole world to be served by serving Christ well at our own door.

The statistical report for the year follows:

REPORT OF W.M.U. TRAINING SCHOOL

This year of 1947 marks the fortieth anniversary of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School for Christian Workers. We pause to pay tribute to noble women of vision and to express gratitude to God for His manifest favor upon their sacrificial efforts.

It is impossible to estimate the far-reaching influence of such a unique institution. Its more than twenty-four hundred graduates encircle the world, as they join hands with God and each other in loving ministry. There is no mission field supported by Southern Baptists where these hands do not reach out to serve a needy world. Hundreds of others serve as effectively in various capacities in our homeland. Wherever a "Training School girl" is found, she is a definite missionary force and has a passion for Kingdom service. This fact justifies the investment of missionary dollars in this school which trains those who actually do missionary work at home and on foreign fields.

Our needy world calls today for more trained workers than are available. Many young people are eager to train themselves and find their places of service. The Training School has a full house this year with an enrollment of 135 boarding and 76 day students. Again North Carolina has the largest state group. We are justly proud of our large number of 22 boarding students plus four day students who are wives of Seminary students. Dr. Littlejohn has congratulated us upon both quantity and quality.

State W.M.U. scholarships are being used by six of our group. The Edna R. Harris Honor Scholarship was granted to Mary Lee Ernest of Greenville. Loans are being used by the following: Sarah Yates, Charlotte; Rachel Thompson, Durham; Anna Mae Locklear, Pembroke; Vivian Hiers, Wilmington; and Margaret Hollis, Laurinburg. These loan funds still prove to be the only means by which some can take advantage of this training.

Yesterday's leaders planned wisely and well for today. In this day of highly specialized training, we are truly grateful for this school. If we would plan wisely for tomorrow, we must give ourselves to the prayerful enlistment and training of our youth for tomorrow's task. Only through our co-operation can this school fulfill its high mission to our youth and to the world. It is worthy of our wholehearted support. A financial support is important, but a support through our prayerful interest will make it possible for us to share in a service that is world-wide in its scope.

The complete list of North Carolina students this session is as follows: Mary Lee Ernest, Greenville; Frances Hair, Gastonia; Carol Leigh Humphries, Woodsdale; Anna Mae Locklear, Pembroke; Hilda Mayo, Rocky Mount; Jean Stamper, Winston-Salem; Rachel Thompson, Durham; Eleanor Vereen, Raleigh; Gwendolyn Ward, Merry Hill; Sarah Yates, Charlotte; Kathleen Frink, Bladenboro; Wilma Grass, Charlotte; Erleen Gaskin, Albemarle; Vivian Hiers, Wilmington; Mildred Kilby, Purlear; Margaret Lanier, Winton; Lounell Mullis, Harmony; Laura Frances Snow, Stanly; Texie Sowers, Lexington; Evelyn Stewart, Windsor; Hazel Wood, North Wilkesboro; Margaret Hollis, Laurinburg.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. K. REDWINE.

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND CHAIRMAN

The education of the sons and daughters of our missionaries provides a most challenging and worthwhile project for Woman's Missionary Union. The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering contributes $22,000 and the Annie Armstrong Offering furnishes $10,000 for the scholarships of these students. In this way every member of each society has an opportunity to participate. Three times each year a gift check is sent to each student. This money comes from the Burney Fund, so named to honor Mrs. Frank Burney, a southwide Margaret Fund chairman for many years.

The Elizabeth Lowndes Scholarship is awarded annually to the senior Margaret Fund student who has demonstrated for three years outstanding scholarship, leadership, personality, and character. A Wake Forest student, George Stamps, received this award for 1946-1947. Last year Betty Lide, who was a Wake Forest senior of 1946, was granted this award. North Carolina is proud of these students. Betty Lide is now doing post-graduate work at the Bowman Gray Medical School in Winston-Salem.

Betty Woodward, Richard Gallimore, Eugenia Johnson, Mary Frances Johnson, Campbell McMillan, George Stamps, John Tumblin—Wake Forest College.

Emily Pool, Geneva Jo White—Meredith College.

Robert Lide—University of North Carolina.

George Cowsert, Annie Negrin—Wingate Junior College.

Ann Tumblin—Campbell Junior College.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. R. HARRILL.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

"For the structure that we raise,
Time is with material filled;
Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks with which we build."

Not for want of time, material, nor opportunity to use it do we have to confess our year was not all it should have been, though some steps of progress were made. We are far from satisfied with our reports.

As we glance down our pages of totals from the associations we see gains in many columns, but far too many losses, too, are recorded there. We have felt that the conferences for training and the meetings for inspiration were almost ideal, yet the todays that followed were not always utilized. We left "yawning gaps between." We forgot that there were "glorious heights to climb—beauteous but far," and there is still much progress to be made. Maybe God will partially balance our accounts.

We have nice gains in the number of tithers, the number of societies observing seasons of prayer with offerings, subscriptions to missionary periodicals, and a particularly nice gain in gifts through the Co-operative Program and in total gifts. The superintendent is indeed thankful for the increase in gifts in view of the increase in goals over former years.

The French Broad and Mitchell Associations reached the ten (10%) per cent increase in gifts through the Co-operative Program, according to figures given on reports to Divisional Superintendent.

We have made little progress this year in reaching new churches and new women and young people, the cause for which we should find and remedy.

Mrs. Tom Walters, Buncombe; Mrs. M. K. Sinclair, Carolina; and Mrs. W. L. Robinson, French Broad, are new associational superintendents whom we welcome and from whom we pray for outstanding leadership.

The divisional chairmen and Young People's Leader, and the Associate Superintendent rendered outstanding aid to the Divisional Superintendent, who, having illness in her home all the year, found attending meetings often impossible. The prayers of these and others have been most sustaining.

Only God knows the faithful service given by some. Pray with us that others join our faithful group in prayer and service. Pray His forgiveness for our wasted opportunities.

"God grant that we may never rest in what we are;
There are glorious heights to climb, beauteous, but far;
There is much progress still to make, though foes may bar."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. R. MORGAN,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF BRYSON CITY DIVISION

We in the Bryson City Division have many reasons for rejoicing over the growth and progress of our W.M.U. work during the past year. May we take courage and plan for greater things for the coming year.

We are mindful of the fact that we can of ourselves do nothing and that all the results we see are entirely the work of the Holy Spirit. I offer you a brief report of this year's work, with the prayer that Christ Jesus may have His way in our hearts and lives during the coming year.

The leadership conferences in January in both the division and the associations were real working conferences, filled with earnestness and spiritual fellowship. These presented a challenge for greater accomplishments for this year.

The associational superintendents report that they have had a very good year. Improvements have been noted along all lines. Grateful indeed are we for the increased interest and gifts during our special seasons of prayer and for a marked increase in Co-operative Program gifts and World Relief. There has been an increase in tithers, societies, auxiliaries and membership.

Our records for mission study have suffered greatly again this year because many classes have not been reported. Various plans were made and emphasized for mission study. The study of the Year Book proved most helpful, especially to all newly elected officers.

There has been a decided increase of interest in the real purpose of community missions. Working in co-operation with the associational chairmen, we have kept soul-winning ever before the women. Study of the Guide for Community Missions has led to greater service along many lines. Books on soul-winning have also been studied.

The missionaries have endeared themselves to the people in their respective associations and are radiating Christ in the communities. Through their untiring efforts the division has been greatly strengthened.

Under consecrated leadership our young people have been challenged to higher planes of Christian living. Many encouraging things have prompted continued interest in our young people's work.

The divisional meeting was held at Cherokee in October. The day was one of inspiration and forward-looking plans.

Later in October an interracial meeting was held in Tuckaseigee Association. The booklet "Understanding Our Neighbors" was used as a basis of study and discussion.

We are grateful to God for blessing our work so abundantly.

Mrs. E. H. Corpening, Jr., of Tapoco, is the new superintendent of Bryson City Division. We welcome her to this place of responsibility and leadership.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. M. WARREN,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

The six associations of the Charlotte Division worked faithfully during the past year to promote the Kingdom through the chief aims of Woman's Missionary Union. The splendid co-operation on the part of officers, chairmen, superintendents, and each individual member has made the year a happy one of real service.

Number organizations	432

The Mecklenburg Association, Mrs. V. G. Roberts, Superintendent, reached all points on the Standard.

Mrs. Ben J. McIver. Young People's Leader, led in a marvelous camp for juniors last summer. This was held at Wingate Junior College. It was necessary to combine the camps, having girls and boys together. The enrollment was 169 plus day campers. There were 20 who accepted Christ, and 52 dedicated themselves for definite Christian service.

Miss Alda Grayson brought stirring messages to two associations in December.

The Division has rented a cottage at Ridgecrest for W.M.U. week for divisional officers, chairmen and associational superintendents.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. DAVID E. BOBBITT,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

The women and young people of the Elizabeth City Division are very humble and grateful that God has blessed them in their service for Him during the past year. In offerings, they have placed upon His altar love gifts amounting to $51,811.83 to be used to enlarge His work and make His name known throughout the world. This has been achieved through prayer and more intense study of stewardship.

Our Division is very proud of the W.M.U. of the Chowan Association as it attained all the points on the Associational Standard of Excellence, making it A-1. It seems that many good things came to this association in the fall months of 1946. One, the county unions held a rally for their young people.

In October the Division met at Gatesville, the home church of Mrs. T. Sloane Guy, Sr., the capable superintendent of this association, through whose wise planning and counsel the Chowan has gone forward and reached this high standing. We were greatly blessed by having present our State President, Mrs. Foy J. Farmer, and Miss Kathleen Mallory, Executive Secretary of Southern Union, who brought to us inspirational messages. Mr. Bill Jackson, State Royal Ambassador Secretary, was present and was introduced. Miss Frances Winstead, the young people's leader for the Division, who had rendered such splendid service in the work, resigned as she was leaving the Division. Miss Martha Ellen Barr of Elizabeth City was elected to succeed her. At this same meeting our women were saddened when the superintendent, Mrs. A. D. Ward of Hobbsville, offered her resignation. It was with much reluctance that this was accepted, as much of the achievement, growth and gains of the year are due to her untiring efforts.

In November, Dr. R. E. Wall, Royal Ambassador counselor of the Division, held the Royal Ambassador Conclave in Elizabeth City. This was well attended and proved a blessing to each boy in attendance.

One phase of the work which brings great joy to the women of the West Chowan Association is the Pearle Johnson Training School Scholarship given in honor of the missionary, Miss Pearle Johnson, whom this association supports in China. This has been awarded to two young women of the association, Miss Gwendolyn Ward, who is graduating from the Training School this spring, and Miss Evelyn Stewart, a first-year student there. Both of these are from Windsor. The women are happy to have another young woman there this year from their association, Miss Margaret Lanier, of Winton. Although they have no part in sharing her expenses, she is constantly in their prayers and thought.

Last summer in the association three rallies were held for young people. These were well attended and splendid programs were given by the young people themselves. Mrs. Julian P. Porter of Severn is the efficient superintendent of this association.

There is much work to be done in this Division as we strive to increase our interest, organize new societies, reach the unenlisted, enlarge our gifts, plan more definite work for the young people and seek to bring the lost to Christ. We give thanks for what was accomplished for our Master's work during the year 1946, and pray that in 1947 more will be done for Him, whom we seek to serve.

Respectfully submitted,

MISS UNA WHITE,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

As we look back over the year 1946 we feel that "God has done great things for us whereof we are glad." But we cannot be wholly pleased with what we have done for God. We have made some gains, but it is our earnest prayer that we may reach a higher goal in this new year He has given. As we kept before us our state watchword, "For ye serve the Lord Christ," we endeavored to study more, to reach more of our young people for His service and to consecrate ourselves more fully to the task of making the world Christian.

Our annual meeting was held in First Church, Lexington, the ladies of Liberty Association being our hostesses. It was a wonderful day. It was our privilege to have Miss Kathleen Mallory, our Southwide Executive Secretary; Mrs. Foy J. Farmer, our State President; and Miss Elizabeth Hale, one of our beloved missionaries from China, to bring to us messages of challenge, of inspiration, and encouragement.

There were two new associational superintendents introduced: Mrs. C. B. Atkinson of the Liberty Association, who succeeded Mrs. N. C. Teague; and Mrs. E. T. Howell of Piedmont, succeeding Mrs. J. Ben Eller. We also have a new Divisional Royal Ambassador Counselor, Mr. B. C. Mixson of High Point.

We were very glad to have a good mission study report. There were 647 classes, an increase of 109 over last year; and a gain of 837 in attendance. There were 6 schools of missions and 9 Missionary Round Tables. Four associations had Mission Study Institutes. Study increases our interest in God's people.

We were pleased with our three Junior Camps. Each camp was well attended, the spirit was excellent and all in all a real success. Our associational young people's leaders deserve much credit for the excellent work they have done in reaching our young people.

We feel that our five associations have made a good record but we look forward to an even better one in 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. STAFFORD WEBB,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF HICKORY DIVISION

As we think of peace again in the world, may we say with the angels: "Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth and good will to men." May we be willing to minister to human needs as never before.

When I come to give an account of the W.M.U. work of Hickory Division, the chief aims of Woman's Missionary Union come to my mind. During the year 309 organizations observed the seasons of prayer for home, state and foreign missions. Three hundred and twenty-one organizations were engaged in regular community missions. In the study of missions, 623 mission study classes were reported, 13 schools of missions and 6 Missionary Round Tables. Five hundred and seventy-six new tithers were reported, making the total number of tithers 2,705. We are very happy to report gratifying increases in Co-operative Program gifts and in our special offerings.

All of the nine associations showed progress in all phases of the work under the leadership of capable superintendents. In the division there are 361 churches with 675 organizations. We had a total of 71 new organizations during the year.

If we are to save tomorrow's church for Christ, we must start with today's youth. Miss Sue Ellen Ray and Rev. G. L. Royster very ably conducted Junior G.A. and R.A. Camps with much success. Plans are being made for camps again this year.

Our annual meeting was held in October with the First Church, Marion. The attendance was splendid, and inspiring, helpful messages were brought during the day. We were especially happy to have with us our new executive secretary, Miss Ruth Provence, Mrs. David Boyd of Charlotte, and Mrs. John Wacaster.

We are sorry to have lost some of our good workers, but happy that others are willing to take over the work: Rev. Woodrow Harris, Shelby, Royal Ambassador counselor; Mrs. Ted G. Braswell, Morganton, mission study chairman; and Mrs. M. O. Owens, Marion, Margaret Fund and Training School chairman.

We praise God for all the accomplishments of the past and pray for His guidance in the work of this year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. TERRY SMART,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF RALEIGH DIVISION

"Praise God from whom all blessings flow!"

These words describe our feelings as the splendid reports each quarter and at the end of the year come to the superintendent.

There are eight associations in the Raleigh Division with superintendents as follows: Mrs. J. F. Funderburke, Beulah; Mrs. J. E. Wilder, Johnston; Mrs. W. D. Poe, Flat River; Mrs. D. B. Andrews, Little River; Mrs. George N. Harward, Mount Zion; Mrs. F. O. Mixon, Raleigh; Mrs. Colin Churchill, Sandy Creek; Miss Lillie Harper, Tar River. These consecrated women have been most faithful in performing their duties, and to them should go much credit for the splendid work that has been accomplished in our division. Each one has reported every quarter on time and all except one held leadership conferences in their respective associations. These conferences did much to promote our W.M.U. work and acquaint the workers in the associations with their duties.

We have 381 churches. 298 W.M.S., 602 young people's organizations, 19 new W.M.S., 71 new young people's organizations this year; 55 full graded W.M.U.'s, 8 full graded A-1 W. M. U.'s, with 16,630 women and young people enlisted. These have held 1,483 prayer services during the three seasons of prayer. One association, the Johnston, Mrs. J. E. Wilder, superintendent, was A-1.

All financial goals have been reached and our gifts have been most gratifying. A total of $77,333.79 was given through the Co-operative Program by women and young people, and $84,340.94 was contributed through special offerings.

Mrs. R. B. Wilkins, divisional young people's leader, has done splendid work with our young people. Through her influence several camps were sponsored in the associations of our division for Junior R.A.'s and G.A.'s. The Mount Zion Association held two day camps for each of these organizations.

Mission study has again been an outstanding feature in the Raleigh Division, with a total of 1,085 classes, 85 Schools of Missions, and 9 Missionary Round Tables. Too, our Community Missions report is most encouraging with 6,374 members taking part in this phase of our work. There are 3,261 women and young people in our organizations who are tithers.

Our annual meeting was held at First Church, Henderson, in October. Miss Kathleen Mallory, Mrs. Foy J. Farmer and Mr. B. W. Jackson were our guest speakers.

Through another year God has been good to us and we praise His name for all His many blessings as we seek to "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" in 1947.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. G. HAMMETT,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF ROCKY MOUNT DIVISION

As I am new as the superintendent of the Rocky Mount Division, I feel that the report should be from the retiring superintendent, Mrs. E. B. Beasley. She has served as the superintendent of the Rocky Mount Division for a number of years, and the division has gone forward in a great way. Mrs. Beasley was, and still is, a shining light in our work, and I personally feel her guidance as I try to take her place.

The year 1946 has been a great one in the three associations that comprise the Rocky Mount Division. Mrs. C. M. Billings, superintendent of the Neuse, has really worked with all of her power to lead that small association to greater and bigger tasks. The work has definitely improved and there are signs of even greater progress. Mrs. C. R. Daniel, superintendent of the Roanoke, has gone all out in organizational work, and there has been a great increase in the number of missionary societies as well as in the number of young people's organizations. The results of her labors are a definite sign of progress. Mrs. John Lashley, the new superintendent of the Atlantic, is one of the finest leaders we have in this small association. She is really not new in the work, for she helped me when I served as superintendent before her. Her report shows that at last the Atlantic Association has reached the Associational Standard of Excellence. Congratulations, Mrs. Lashley!

The organizations of all three associations have combined to make the Rocky Mount Division reach the high goals set for the Co-operative Program, the Seasons of Prayer and special gifts. Our young people's work is still not what we had anticipated, due largely to lack of leaders. The number of mission study classes, the number of tithers, and the community missions work show an increase.

We have started the new year with great enthusiasm, and my prayer is that every woman in the Rocky Mount Division will be faithful to the task that is so urgent. Surely we shall all be led by Him who said, "Go ye . . . and lo, I am with you always."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. B. DANIEL,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

It has been a pleasure and privilege to work with the fine women of the Wilmington Division these short months that I have been Superintendent.

The goals and achievements of 1946 were made possible by the fine capable leadership of our past Superintendent, Mrs. G. Carl Lewis, whose love and interest in our work are a real challenge to all of us.

The leadership conference, followed by the associational conferences, gave us plans and definite goals for the year. We did not attain every one of them, but we did accomplish much.

Gifts to all purposes were most gratifying. The number of tithers, especially among our young people, has increased. We have had more mission study classes, schools of missions and mission study institutes. We also have two Missionary Round Tables in the Division.

The Junior Camp at Carolina Beach was an outstanding success. I am sure our Juniors grasped a vision of the world's need and a spiritual blessing from living those few days with Miss Katie Murray, Miss Hilda Mayo, Mr. Bill Jackson and all the other splendid workers who helped us.

Many of our Intermediates attended the state camps. One association, Brunswick, had a Girls' Auxiliary Camp.

We are most grateful for what has been accomplished; but as we face the fact that we have 319 churches in the division and 113 of these have no W.M.U. organization, we realize that we still have a great task before us. There are so many unenlisted, so much to do. We need to pray more, work more, and study more as we thank God for our blessings of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. H. REYNOLDS,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF WILKESBORO DIVISION

Many things point toward the fact that our Wilkesboro Division is on the upward climb from the abyss of non-existence, or somewhere equally indefinite:

First, foremost in importance, is the warm feeling of acquaintance and friendship between associational and divisional personnel, the joy of "Laborers together with God." "Some say that correspondence accomplished most of that good fellowship."

Second, equally important, is the knowledge and understanding of our W.M.U. plan and program of work. "Some say that the Executive Council in Raleigh, the leadership conferences in the division and association contribute largely toward that better knowledge and understanding."

Third, we believe in reporting, while we deplore the multiplicity of reports; but with accurate records we can gauge the progress of missionary endeavors in each locality. "Some say that reports are easy, when, and if, the work is done."

Fourth, the visits, letters and encouragement of our state officers and leaders contribute more to our well being and progress than we can express. "Some say that these visits and letters are invaluable."

Fifth, sharing the expenses of divisional and associational work causes many more societies to understand the nature and scope of the W.M.U. work. "Some say that they want to pay their part, since all cannot be on the field of action."

Sixth, Divisional Camps for Juniors brought home to many, the needs and the necessity of having a permanent camp site in each of our ten divisions. "Some say that they would appreciate the gift, or loan, of a suitable camp site."

Seventh, appreciation of long terms of office for faithful, efficient leaders, eliminates confusion by continual changes. "Some say that good and efficient leaders are gifts from our Lord."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. N. MYERS,
Superintendent.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR NORTH CAROLINA WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION, 1947

Watchword: "Go ye . . . and make disciples of all the nations." —Matt. 28:19.

Hymn: "Hark! the Voice of Jesus Calling."

Recognizing that the call and commission of Christ are directed to every individual Christian, and claiming the promise of His presence and power, we adopt the following recommendations for the plan of work for 1947:

I. Prayer—Individual and United.

A. That we covenant anew

1. To observe the nine o'clock prayer hour.
2. To consistently use the Calendar of Prayer.
3. To encourage the establishment of family altars.

4. To pray for the unsaved.
5. To pray that laborers may be thrust forth into the harvest fields.

B. That we place new emphasis on the establishment of Intercessory Prayer Leagues.

C. That we stress the observance of the three seasons of prayer in every W.M.U. organization.

II. Plans and Methods.

A. That the Year Book published by the Woman's Missionary Union, S.B.C., be the guide for plans and methods.

B. That we place special emphasis on the fundamentals for which our Union stands, and that our high moral standards be presented as a definite witness for Christ.

C. That we continue to emphasize the enlistment of new members, the organization of new societies, the constant striving toward reaching the highest standards.

D. That the plan of reporting as adopted by the Executive Council in November, 1946, and printed in the 1947 Guide Book for Divisional and Associational Officers be followed.

E. That we endeavor to have at least ten Business Woman's Circle Federations in the state by the end of the year.

F. That we inaugurate a Missionary Library Fund for the purpose of sending books and magazines each Christmas to North Carolina women missionaries overseas and those employed by the Home Mission Board, this fund to be provided out of the "over and above" gifts to the Heck Memorial Offering.

G. That a W.M.S. Camp be held at Fruitland, July 14-20, with every effort toward a large and representative attendance.

H. That W.M.U. Week at Ridgecrest, August 7-13, be publicized and attendance urged.

I. That we co-operate in all plans toward 1948 as a special Commemoration Year of Woman's Missionary Union auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

III. Study.

A. Mission Study.

1. That the local mission study chairman be aware of her responsibility in supervising the program of study for all the organizations of her union.
2. That each society study a minimum of three mission study texts during the year.
3. That W.M.S. members be urged to complete the study of selected texts and young people be urged to qualify for their awards.
4. That members of junior organizations above Sunbeam Bands be required to read the text and take a written test with books closed, before receiving mission study awards.

5. That general use be made of promotional aids among W.M.S. members.
6. That missionary reading be promoted in all W.M.U. organizations, using the suggested booklets and reading cards.
7. That Missionary Round Tables be organized among those who wish to do additional missionary reading.
8. That an associational mission study institute be held in every association sometime during the year.
9. That local schools of missions, where approved mission study texts are used, be encouraged as one of the most effective methods in the study of missions.
10. That the World in Books, revised as of August, 1945, be used as the basis for recommended texts to be used in mission study classes until such time as a newer revision shall be available.
11. That attention be given to the W.M.U. page of The Biblical Recorder for additional books recommended for study.

B. Literature.

1. That continued emphasis be placed on the value of W.M.U. missionary publications: Royal Service, The Window of Y.W.A., World Comrades and Ambassador Life; and that we strive to increase their circulation and use.
2. That we continue to secure subscriptions to The Commission and Southern Baptist Home Missions; and that the material in these publications be used to enrich the circle and general society programs.
3. That we reaffirm our loyalty to The Biblical Recorder and urge our members to subscribe to it.

IV. Stewardship.

A. That, due to the urgent need for a new conception of stewardship, all W.M.U. officers and chairmen (state, divisional, associational and local) encourage and support in every possible way stewardship plans for 1947.

1. That a stewardship book be used for devotional or study in all circles ("To Whom Much Is Given," Thomas).
2. That there be a concentrated effort toward a week of stewardship in every church.
3. That new plans of stewardship education be used in all junior organizations.
4. That Stewardship Night or a stewardship program be given in every church as a climax to the year's stewardship education.

5. That the following suggestions be considered by associational and local chairmen as a means of promoting year-round activities in the local church:
   a. Committees—
      (1) Planning committee consisting of pastor, educational director, W.M.S. president, young people's director, mission study chairman and stewardship chairman.
      (2) Committee consisting of stewardship chairman and circle stewardship chairmen to promote and foster stewardship plans in circles and junior organizations.
   b. Study of Stewardship Literature—
      (1) Books listed on page 50 in Year Book (Add "To Whom Much Is Given," 60c, by Thomas).
      (2) Pages 10-11, 27, 53-57, 86 in Year Book.
      (3) Guide Book for Divisional and Associational Officers.
      (4) Free literature and helps from W.M.U. office.
   c. Check tithers and keep up-to-date and accurate information.
   d. Try to enlist new tithers.
   e. Keep the subject of tithes and offerings before the members by the use of talks, posters, etc.
   f. A program of visitation in an effort to lead all resident women members of the church in giving to missions.
   g. Encourage the "Prove Me Plan."
   h. Assist in the Every Member Canvass in the local church.

B. Tithes and Offerings.
   1. That the tithe be the minimum basis of contributing.
   2. That we accept a ten per cent increase in tithers for point 4 on the Standard of Excellence but a goal of 33,334 tithers.
   3. Co-operative Program:
      a. That point 3 on the Standard of Excellence shall require a ten per cent increase in undesignated Co-operative Program gifts and at least seventy-five per cent of the members of the organization contributing through the Co-operative Program.
      b. That we give continued emphasis to the enlistment of every resident woman member of the church as a contributor to missions.
      c. That we encourage special offerings as a means of spiritual growth, thus bringing our love gifts during our seasons of prayer for home, state and foreign missions.

4. That we give emphasis to the Heck Memorial Offering in June and that it be appropriated as follows:

W.M.U. Training School	$ 3,000
Shaw University	1,000
Gifts to New Orleans and Southwestern Seminaries	5,200
Development of Fruitland	5,000
American Bible Society	800
Total	$ 15,000

5. Goals for 1947:

Total number of tithers	33,334
Undesignated Co-operative Program gifts	$ 461,095
Total Gifts	$ 904,000

V. Community Missions.

A. That each local Woman's Missionary Union have a chairman of community missions who plans and directs the work not only of the society but of the young people's organizations in co-operation with the counselors and chairmen of the organizations.

B. That the real purpose of community missions, soul-winning, be ever kept in mind, and every form of activity be a means to this high purpose.

C. That every society study the Guide for Community Missions, make a survey, work out a plan of work that will meet community needs, then work the plan.

D. That we endeavor to enlist every member in community missions activity, reporting each quarter the number of members participating.

E. That every association organize a Community Missions Council to be composed of all community missions chairmen, the duty of this Council being to better organize and direct community missions work in the societies and young people's organizations.

F. That institutes be held by groups of churches and associations where teachers are taught to teach the Guide and how to direct community missions activities.

G. That our women and young people strive to win spiritual results in their communities by promoting evangelism, manifesting Christian fellowship and emphasizing moral standards that pertain to community life.

H. That we endeavor to help in the breaking down of racial prejudice and commit ourselves to interracial justice, effective methods for religious and spiritual betterment, and the co-operative work of soul-winning among all races.

I. That special committees be appointed to work with the State Department of Public Welfare in the counties in Christian helpfulness for the aged, the helpless children and other groups to whom the state agencies give material aid; and to seek to remove centers in the communities detrimental to the moral and spiritual welfare of our young people.

VI. Missionary Education of Young People.

A. That each missionary society give special attention to developing the work among the young people through the graded system of missionary education as outlined in the Year Book, organizational manuals and other materials issued from Birmingham, with special emphasis on the following:

1. The service of a consecrated, efficient W.M.U. young people's director, who also serves as chairman of the young people's committee.
2. The organization and maintenance of the full graded union for the sake of enlisting in missions all young people of the church.
3. The development of a trained leadership for young people, through the correspondence course and other plans of study.
4. A well-rounded, adequate program of fostering throughout the months.
5. Subscriptions to "Ambassador Life," "World Comrades" and "The Window of Y.W.A." in the homes of all young people.
6. Study on Girls' Auxiliary Forward Steps and the Royal Ambassador Ranking System in the second monthly meeting of these organizations.
7. A progressive program of stewardship education, following the plans outlined for 1947 and culminating in Church Night of Stewardship in every church in the fall.

B. That concentrated effort be made to organize every association more fully in Royal Ambassador work: an associational counselor in each association; an association-wide counselors' conference; and, where practicable, an organized Royal Ambassador Conclave with quarterly meetings.

C. That an annual gathering, or gatherings, for all young people above Sunbeam ages be held in every association, these to be association-wide in scope or promoted in every subdivision of the association (group, county or district).

D. That we seek to have twenty-five Y.W.A. Councils in the state by the close of this anniversary year.

E. That the ten divisions of the State W.M.U. plan for camps for Junior Girls' Auxiliary and Royal Ambassador members under the leadership of the divisional young people's leader and divisional Royal Ambassador counselor.

F. That where practicable, associational camps be promoted for Intermediates and Juniors combined, the emphasis to be kept definitely missionary.

G. That the State W.M.U. provide camps for Intermediate R.A.'s and G.A.'s as follows:

Royal Ambassador:

June 2-6—Campbell College.
June 30-July 7—Fruitland.
July 7-14—Fruitland.

Girls' Auxiliary:

June 30-July 4—Meredith College.
July 7-11—Meredith College.
July 21-28—Fruitland.
July 28-August 4—Fruitland.

H. That we urge attendance of young women upon Ridgecrest Y.W.A. Camp, June 19-25, and co-operate in all plans for state representation at the Young Men's Mission Conference at Ridgecrest, August 13-19.

VII. Christian Education.

A. Margaret Fund.

1. That the amount for Margaret Fund Scholarships continue to be secured through the Annie Armstrong Offering and Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.
2. That the Burney Gift of the Margaret Fund be contributed by societies in amounts not more than $3.00 each.

That the Burney Gift of the Margaret Fund be sent by societies to the associational Margaret Fund chairman; that she forward the amount to the State W.M.U. Treasurer, 119 Hillsboro St., Raleigh, and send a report of the same to the divisional Margaret Fund chairman.

B. Training School.

1. That we realize afresh that Woman's Missionary Union is entirely responsible for the founding and maintenance of the W.M.U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., and that the demand for trained workers is urgent.
2. That this school be emphasized as a vital part of our missionary work and be given a place on associational and divisional programs and be included in the Heck Memorial Program in June.
3. That we encourage choice young women to take the training offered in this school; that we continue careful selection of only those applicants who have had thorough literary preparation, who are esteemed for Christian character and participation in religious work and who give promise of greatest usefulness in Kingdom work.

4. That June 1 be the latest date for the acceptance of applications for the following fall entrance.
5. That North Carolina accept the suggested apportionment of $1,700 as her part of the current expenses of the School; that we designate $1,300 for North Carolina W.M.U. loans.

C. Other Training Schools.

1. That we continue to give to the Training Schools at Southwestern Seminary and New Orleans Seminary sympathetic encouragement.

D. Our Denominational Colleges.

1. That we give increasing loyalty to our denominational colleges, praying regularly for faculties and students, encouraging our boys and girls to matriculate in these colleges.

VIII. Benevolent Institutions—Baptist Hospital and Baptist Orphanage of North Carolina.

A. That we urge the continued and generous support through the churches of both our Baptist Hospital and the Baptist Orphanage.

B. That until it is possible to do White Cross work for foreign hospitals we continue to give linen for the Baptist Hospital through the White Cross department.

REPORT OF THE APPRECIATION COMMITTEE

"Let all the people praise thee, O God, Let all the people praise thee." These words of the psalmist express the feeling in the hearts of those who have attended the 56th session of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina. We feel a deep sense of gratitude to the First Baptist Church, to the pastor, Mr. Perry Crouch, to the assistant to the pastor, Mr. John Durst, to Mrs. E. Z. Stines, president of the W.M.S., and to Mrs. George Pennell, general chairman, and her committees for their fine contribution to the success of this convention; the lovely flowers and decorations, the meals served for our convenience, the pages, the cars and busses used to transport us to and from the meetings, and many other helpful gestures will long be remembered.

To the good people of Asheville who have opened their homes and shared their kind hospitality, we are indeed grateful.

Our faithful and devoted state officers, led by Mrs. J. S. Farmer, President, and Miss Ruth Provence, Executive Secretary, have led us to heights above through the well planned and deeply spiritual program. Our consecrated missionaries, the Mars Hill College students, the Asheville First Church choir, the soloist, Miss Mary Nell Hardin, along with the organists, have contributed uncounted blessings.

The Young People's Pageant, directed by Mrs. J. R. Owen, the Tableaux, arranged by Mrs. Murray Eisenhauer and Miss Ruth Martin, will linger in our hearts as we go down from these hills and we will endeavor to lead our own young people to great Missionary vision.

Surely God is good to permit us to have a part in this great feast that foretells even greater things when we are more fully consecrated to the task of going into all the world. May our ears be keener to hear the calls of the needy at our door and around the world. And, O God, help us to realize that "To whom much is given," much shall be required.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Ben Stephenson, Chairman.
Mrs. E. B. Beasley.
Mrs. Earl C. Jones.
Mrs. R. W. Mason.
Mrs. W. B. Sprinkle.

REPORT OF TIME AND PLACE COMMITTEE

The Committee on Time and Place submit the following report: We recommend that the time of the next annual meeting be March 9-11, 1948, and the place be First Baptist Church, Greensboro. Greensboro, in extending this very cordial invitation, recognizes the limitations of her physical equipment and her inability to equal the gracious hospitality of the present hostesses.

Respectfully submitted,
